Question #12 (10 points)			Correct
Question Text: How does the biblical view of war differ from the view of war presented by Ingsoc?	Correct Answer: War is used by Ingsoc as a constant instrument of consumption and terror. It consumes the products of society in order to prevent people from becoming content or satisfied. Also, its constant threat and practice keeps people in a fear that necessitates their continual clinging to Big Brother. On the other hand, the Christian Scriptures present war as an occasional, unfortunate necessity that results from living in a sinful world. Ultimately, war is sometimes necessary because the Christian faith is at war with all sin and wickedness. But the end goal of this warfare is not terror, but rather peace and prosperity in Jesus Christ.	Student Answer: War is used by Ingsoc as a constant instrument of consumption and terror.
